

Contents

Essays

- 15 Carol MacCurdy
The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao: No Way Out but into the Cane Fields
- 31 András Tarnóc
Progressing from “mistress’ lap-dog to freeman”: Commemorating the Slavery Experience in the Hispanic World via the Narrative of Juan Francisco Manzano
- 41 Ágnes Zsófia Kovács
Signifyin’ the Unsayable Past in Toni Morrison’s Beloved: The Case of the Newspaper Cutting
- 51 Mária Kurdi
A Fruitful Two Way Relationship: Arthur Miller and Irish Theatre
- 63 Irén Annus
“A Question of Pigment?” The Representation of Mexicans in the Depression Art of Dorothea Lange
- 75 Mónika Szente-Varga
From Hungarian Major to Central American Entrepreneur? The Life of Louis Schlesinger in Exile
- 87 Éva Forintos
Culture and Language Maintenance Efforts of the Hungarian Community in San Diego (California, USA)

Reviews

- 105 Aladár Sarbu
Gabriella Vöő, Kortársunk, Mr. Poe. Felfedező utak az összegyűjtött elbeszélésekben [Our contemporary, Mr Poe: Journeys of discovery in the collected tales]

- 108 Andrew C. Rouse
Ian Keable, Charles Dickens Magician: Conjuring in Life, Letters and Literature
- 111 Zsuzsa Csikai
Ondřej Pilný, ed., Irish Theatre & Central Europe. Special issue of Litteraria Pragensia—Studies in Literature and Culture
- 114 Mária Kurdi
Magdolna Jákfalvi, ed. “A performativitás mint fordulat” (Performativity as a Turn). Filológiai Közlöny (Philological Review)